Friday, February 23 - An Evening with CS Lewis at Belhaven University

The year is 1963, and CS Lewis, the famous British author, is hosting a group of American writers at his home near Oxford. They are about to experience a captivating evening with a man whose engaging conversation and spontaneous humor made him one of the great raconteurs of his day. Seated in his living room and in front of a warm fire he recalls the people and events that inspired his thought and shaped his life; of his friendship with J.R.R. Tolkien, why he nearly abandoned the Narnia Chronicles; how he came to embrace Christianity and of the American woman who turned his life upside down. Described by critics as 'Extraordinary!' 'A Must-See!' 'A Master Class!' An Evening with CS Lewis has proved again and again to be an enthralling theatrical experience and one which has led many thousands to discover (or re-discover) the continuing impact of a man who died over 50 years ago and whose collected works made him one of the literary giants of the 20th Century!
